

Founded in 1934, Rocky Hill Country Day School is an independent, co-ed, college preparatory day school in Rhode Island serving students in pre-k through grade 12. Inspired by engaging learning experiences and a coastal campus, we bring an innovative approach to learning that lets students achieve wider possibilities. With an eye on dynamic, impactful learning, our faculty design projects and lessons that go far beyond delivering content.

Highlights

- Students engage in real-world research and problem solving by collecting and analyzing data using ecological research skills to measure population density and biodiversity.
- In partnership with the University of Rhode Island, students monitor invasive species (Phragmites) and protect threatened species (the diamondback terrapin).
- Students compete in the Rhode Island Scholastic Art Competition.
- Rocky Hill Country Day School's Deckhands Theater Company partners with Trinity Repertory Company, whose educators share their pedagogical theater expertise with our students.
- The Robotics Team competes in the national FIRST (For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology) Tech Challenge. In back-to-back years, the team has made it to the state finals.
- Students participate in national exams in French and Latin, and National Honor Societies.
