COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

Rocky Hill Country Day School seeks a highly qualified Upper School Ceramics Teacher.

Rocky Hill Country Day students grow to become navigators, critical thinkers, citizens, and communicators, who are innovative, self-aware, ethical, and globally-minded through our focus on an interactive, inquiry-based educational experience, mindfulness, and meaningful relationships with adults on campus. Our multifaceted student body is made up of domestic and international students, and our intentionally small school community allows for individualized instruction and creates a familial setting throughout campus. Rocky Hill students and faculty wrestle with necessary, candid conversations in equity and belonging, both to build the school community we strive to have and to prepare students for the world they will shape. Overlooking acres of saltwater marsh on the magnificent coast of Narragansett Bay, Rocky Hill Country Day School's stunning campus fosters exploration and discovery for students in all divisions, nursery through grade 12. Rocky Hill Country Day School graduates are bold learners, prepared to navigate a complex and changing world.

We are looking for a ceramics teacher who is:

- confident in their teaching experience.
- able to teach all varieties of ceramics techniques.
- able to meet students where they are.
- experienced with ceramic processes, mixing glazes, and firing kilns.
- knowledgeable of ceramic studio maintenance including the maintenance of potter's wheels and kilns.

Our teachers:

- engage in inquiry based pedagogy, including project-based learning and other experiential approaches, and embed mindfulness practices into the classroom experience. Knowledge of these approaches is beneficial, and a willingness to develop them is essential,
- must be able to differentiate classroom instruction to address varied learning profiles,
- develop healthy, supportive relationships with students and their families,
- should be comfortable with making decisions in the moment,
- eagerly collaborate with RHCD community members,

Middle and Upper School teachers serve as an advisor to a small group of students. All teachers fulfill an additional duty as assigned by their Division Head.

Candidates must have a bachelor's degree with a masters preferred. Experience in the field is advantageous. This opportunity requires excellent strategies and skills in communication, collaboration, and organization with an appreciation for confidentiality, equity, belonging, and professional growth.

Start date: August 2022

Founded in 1934, Rocky Hill Country Day School is an independent, coeducational, college preparatory day school in East Greenwich, RI made up of 300 students in nursery through grade 12.
